TREND on

This spring seems like last spring. Is it just me or is everything repeating itself? So this TREND REQUEST segment might come off a little snarky and I do apologize ahead of time. But seriously, can we just move away from repeating decades?

ROBERTO CAVALLI

After less than two years in the job of creative director at Roberto Cavalli, Peter Dundas is out. His final show at Milan Fashion week marked the end of his run for the brand. Patchworked references, patchwork itself, long drifty dresses, flares, platforms—they're all very "in" this season. In Italy, Peter Dundas has always been the most committed to the look. It will be interesting to see what's next for Cavalli.

SAVE FACE

By Shelli Wright

We all want to turn the cheek and show our best face. With warmer weather rapidly approaching and sun hopefully in our near future it's important to protect your face. There are several options in addition to the basic SPF. Whether it's a Tinted Moisturizer, BB or CC there's a product for you that fits your skin type and works to protect and compliment your precious skin so you can just focus on exuding beauty within. Smiley face. Beauty balms (BB), color correcting (CC), daily defense (DD) tints—are a skin-perfecting must have.

A tinted moisturizer is a moisturizer with a slight tint in it. It gives a slight polished look or a little tint to the skin compared to a foundation. It contains humectants, anti-oxidants and few other ingredients like iron oxides, titanium dioxide. The difference between a tint and a foundation is the later is used to cover the skin with a layer for flawless and perfect-looking skin, while the best tinted moisturizer's works just like a good moisturizer, hydrating the skin while at the same time it evens out the complexion.

The difference between BB and CC creams is subtle--CC generally stands for "color correcting" and the products are meant to address issues like redness or sallowness (usually with light-diffusing particles), whereas BB creams are like lighter foundation with a few skin care benefits thrown in. A CC cream has the distinctive property of targeting discoloration. It boasts the all-in-one foundation, moisturizer, primer, and SPF power of the BB cream, but with an added perk to treat uneven skin tone.

CC creams are best described as BBs' more mature sister, ideal at blurring the signs of aging, thanks to a colour-correcting technology that reflects light off your face. "Dull, ashy skin appears brighter, sallowness transforms into a peachy glow and redness is neutralized," says Wong. Overall, skin looks more uniform in tone. CCs are slightly thicker in formulation to provide better coverage than BB creams. They should also contain higher broad spectrum SPFs and active ingredients to diminish the appearance of fine lines, wrinkles and skin pigment issues.

Your BISOUS Beauty Cheat Sheet

Protected Skin, Because #Adulting

There is no excuse to be skipping the SPF! Enjoy the great outdoors and festival shenanigans while shielding skin from harmful sun damage with this new multitasking primer and serum in one, perfect for prepping skin before makeup or for an extra boost of hydration before applying a moisturizer. For a higher SPF, we suggest layering on the lightweight RESIST Youth-Extending Daily Hydrating Fluid SPF 50.

PAULA'S CHOICE
RESIST Smoothing Primer Serum SPF 30, $30

THRIVE CAUSEMETICS
Brilliant Eye Brightener™, $24

Fake It 'Til You Make It

Get those wide awake eyes even though there's no way you got that much sleep with this creamy, champagne shimmer that uses Ring Light Technology™ to diffuse light and soften the appearance of common problems around the eye area. Our favorite trick is applying it to the inner and outer corners of the eye and directly to the waterline for an instantly doe-eyed look.

SELTZER
Cacti Hat, $29

The Quickest (And Sassiest) Festival Hair Hack

You already know it's going to be a sea of floppy straw hats and summer fedoras. Skip the default look and let this cap do the talking in its flirty pink color and a hilarious "Don't Touch Me" alert embroidered in the back.

Sweat-Proof Cover-Up

The best part about this cult-favorite: use it how you need it. Contour, highlight, and conceal to put your most beautiful face forward with waterproof and adaptable coverage (start sheer and layer on to your liking). While you're out all day/night, jojoba oil and honey will work behind-the- scenes to keep skin soft and radiant.

KEVYN AUCOIN
Sensual Skin Enhancer, $48

RENÉE ROULEAU
Skin Drink Concentrate, $42.50

The Softest Skin You've Ever Seen In This Kind Of Heat

Say hello to this wonder-working serum that works just as great during a Northeast winter as it does in desert heat. The oil-free hyaluronic acid formula saves skin from dehydration and includes a boost of vitamin C to brighten skin. The brand calls it "like drinking 8 glasses of water a day delivered directly deep within your skin" – we stand by it.

Clean (Skin) Queen

Allow your face to have the deep cleanse that it deserves after a long day. This travel-friendly and water resistant cleansing brush removes 6x more makeup and dirt (blegh) than hands alone and while it's gentle enough for use on sensitive skin, it's also suitable for daily use on the body. The thorough cleanse also allows your most prized skincare products to be absorbed more effectively.

SILK'N
Pure, $69.99

EARTH THERAPEUTICS
Tea Tree Oil Soft-Heels™ Gel Patch, $9.99 (5pk)

Treat Those Feet

You've been standing/dancing/frolicking/stuck in a crowd for hours and your feet are tired AF. Give them some TLC with this nourishing, gel patch that cushions your heels with a blend of tea tree, eucalyptus and peppermint oils.

AMIKA
Perk Up Dry Shampoo, $24
($10 for 1 oz. travel size)

Revived Hair From The Day Before

Honestly, who has time to wash their hair every single day? This lightweight formula has obliphica (sea buckthorn berry) to thank for its magic – deodorizing hair, absorbing that pesky oil that makes hair look flat and greasy, and smelling oh so good. A few spritzes to the roots and you're ready to get back to it.

TOUCH IN SOL
Metallist Liquid Foil Lipstick Duo, $25

Hold On To Your Fall Makeup Favorites (Hello, Glitter Lips!)

Metallics are so on-trend for fall, but this concentrated glitter gloss is begging to be worn during festival season. Sweep on a coat of matte, metallic liquid color followed by a matching, high impact gloss for a long wear and statement lips.

INSTYLER
CERASILK Straightener, $115
(launching April 2017)

Styled Hair Without The Damage

The fabrication of the newest line of tools from InStyler offers a whopping 92% less damage to hair because it doesn't actually touch the heat plate directly. Use the straightener to create a coveted, cool-girl S-curl by twisting your wrist back and forth to create a bend in hair that is a more modern and relaxed take on crimped hair from the '90s.

As Guido Palau Global Creative Director for Redken told us backstage at Dior, "there's a plait to suit everyone".

VITAMIN

Wtitten by Shelli Wright

I've been to a lot of beaches. I've been to many in which some would say "I've died and gone to heaven". There was only one which truly resonated with me. Sure, perhaps it was the people I was there with. Or better yet, maybe it was the time in which we chose to go there. Either way, it will always be considered the best holiday I've ever been on. The memories remain and it's nice to find out that the island has not changed and still delivers that exquisite feeling of "we're the luckiest people on earth" to have experienced it. Welcome to the island of Porquerolles, perhaps the last frontier of the French Riviera.

THE ISLAND:

Porquerolles is the biggest of the three islands in the Hyeres gulf off of the French Riviera or Cote d'Azur. Only

Seven km long and 3km wide, Porquerolles and despite being the most popular, and as we embarked on that May morning we realized it appeared to be an unspoiled paradise. With the exception of service vehicles, there are no cars on the island and little pavement as well. And as far as accommodations go just a few inns near the harbor and a luxury hotel at the other end of the island. Your quest for housing needs to be targeted toward vacation rentals and there are few. In the north, three superb beaches offer fine sand and the coast here slopes gently down to sea which is exceptionally clear and you can literally wade out for what seems like a football field. In the south, vertical cliffs rise out of the sea, from this steep relief, you can see a series of rocky points, gorges, headlands and hills. You can admire this wild and majestic landscape from the lighthouse where there is a 360° view of the island and the sea... it's breathtaking! In the interior, there is a mosaic of vineyards, olive trees and fruit trees of all variety... lemons, oranges and mandarins. The paths are bordered by pines, eucalyptus and numerous plantations, courtesy of the Conservatoire Botanique. In the 80s France purchased 80 percent of the island to make it part of the Parc National de Port-Cros to maintain and preserve it's ecological direction and diminish the fear of overstepped building and tourism. Although, not really considered a "lost" paradise, Porquerolles is served by regular shuttles in any season from the small port of La Tour Fondue at the end of the Giens peninsula. In summer, boats dump a flux and reflux of daily visitors. But, with the latest departures of the boat in the afternoon, Porquerolles regains its leisurely pace and the port returns to the tranquility of its peaceful sunsets and vacant dirt roads..these are the privileges reserved when spending the night on the island. Make sure to take out money before you sail to the island, as there are no banks or ATMs to be found there!

SEA

ÎLE DE PORQUEROLLES, FRANCE

HOW TO GET THERE:

We flew into Nice, but then you need to rent a car to drive to Hyeres. There you park at La Tour Fondue and embark on a short water shuttle/ferry to the island.

MENS TRENDS

Spring 2017

By Bisous Fashion

So many trends, so little time. Well, you can do what most designers are doing and just layer it all on at the same time. This motive seem prevalent in menswear this Spring. We narrowed it down to 4 that we thought you could easily get behind.

ANN DEMEULEMEESTER

DRIES VAN NOTEN

LOUIS VUITTON

1 Destroy my Sweater

Yep, just like the old song from the 90s..wait are we repeating decades again? Oh yes. Yes we are. Sweaters are meant to be worn..or worn out as many would walk down the runway this season. Grab some sheers and go crazy.

JACKED UP

Wind breakers are not just a jacket for runners or sporty types. The jacket made quite a victorious comeback on European runways this Spring.

BURBERRY

TAKE A HIKE

My favorite thus far. It doesn't matter if it's a cable belt, carabiners hanging loosely off your pockets, colorful shoelaces that would normally be in a hiking boot or a stupid hiking hat on your head..you have our permission to wear it all. And please let's not forget the hiking sandals that we were sure would remain in our European adventure backpack from '92. Strap em on. They're back.

"You're Basic!" Brews

By Lila Joy Ginsburg

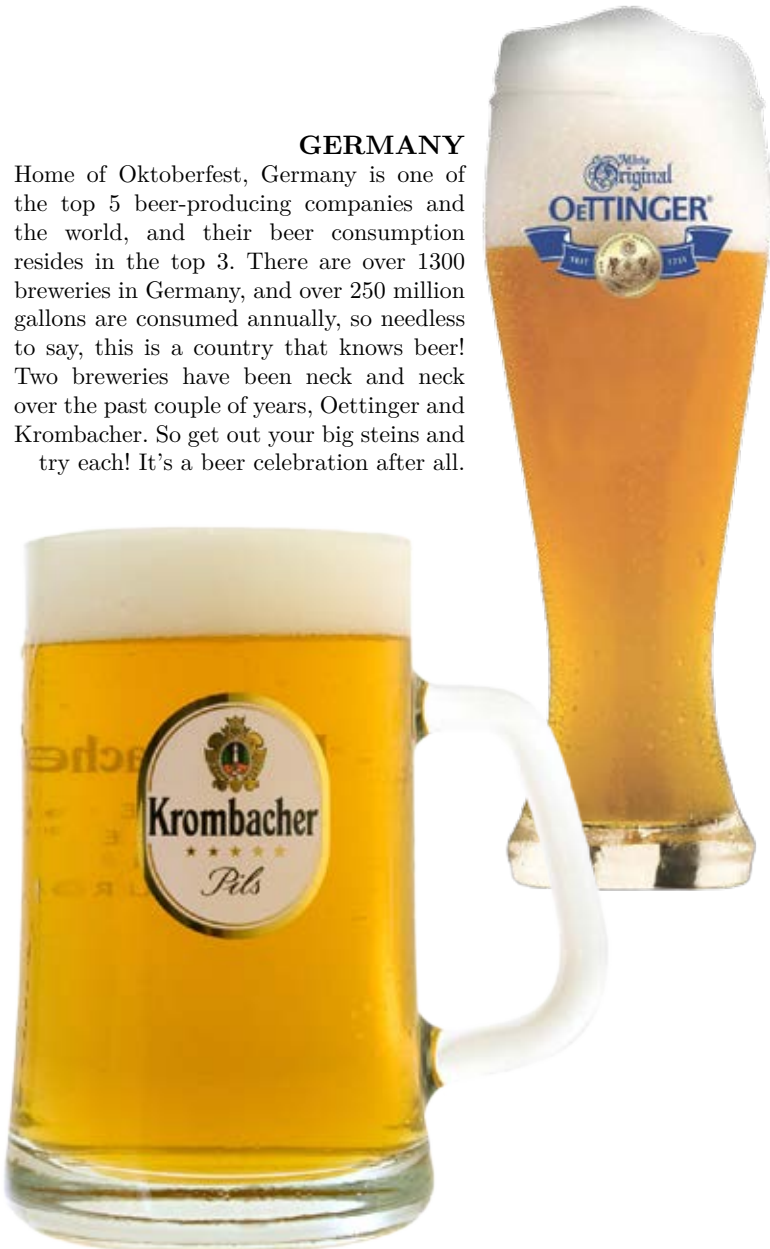
As the weather warms up, there's nothing like a nice cold one to beat the heat. Some of the best brews come from Europe, with 7,500 breweries even the pickiest drinker is sure to find a match. But this story isn't about that. This is about the basic brews, for all you basic drinkers out there. The "Budweisers" of every country!

BELGIUM

Nothing beats a hot summer like a delicious Belgian Beer. From Stella and Chimay to names we can't pronounce, Belgium reigns high in the beer world. Jupiler ranks highest among the most popular "basic" of the brews. It's no Stella, but it gets the job done.

GERMANY

Home of Oktoberfest, Germany is one of the top 5 beer-producing companies and the world, and their beer consumption resides in the top 3. There are over 1300 breweries in Germany, and over 250 million gallons are consumed annually, so needless to say, this is a country that knows beer! Two breweries have been neck and neck over the past couple of years, Oettinger and Krombacher. So get out your big steins and try each! It's a beer celebration after all.



NETHERLANDS

Amsterdam is a city full of green. And by green, I mean Heineken! Heineken is king in this country, there is no question about it! Visit the Heineken museum and learn the beer-making process, and how to properly pour a draught beer (hint: it's all in the tilt).

Proost!

FRANCE

In France, Kronenbourg 1664 is a name that can be heard to the same level as Budweiser is in America. Found at your local bistro or even grab a pint at the nearest McDonalds, you can find this deliciously satisfying Euro pale lager anywhere. So if you aren't in the mood for wine, there is an age-old easy solution for you!

BRITAIN

When the Brits pop into the pub for a pint, the most popular draught of choice is Carling. The Brits tend to favor lager over ales, so it's no surprise they can be found cheering on their favorite football team with this Canadian pale lager in their hand.

ITALY

In a land flowing with wine, the beer options may be few, but the quality is top notch! Peroni is the go to here, a delicious crisp pale lager that makes any hot day under the Tuscan sun slightly more bearable!

IRELAND

Well, you probably know what I'm going to say with this one. Ireland is the home to many delicious beers, but none of them loved as Guinness. And for those of you who have tried this delicious toasty stout, unless you have tried it in Ireland, you don't know the true Guinness taste. If you're unsure about this heavy beer, hop on over to the Gravity Bar at the Guinness Brewery in Dublin for a free sample, the sweeping view of Dublin from their 7th story window is worth the trip.

WILD WONDER

Sicily requires an appetite for adventure and a willingness to get lost! We did not come to Sicily by chance, it is quite the experience when one finds themselves in a perfect crumbling place you would never believe to have existed. Waking up every morning at our majestic Villa, the scented gardens were incomparable. What interested us was the affect of the atmosphere- always on the look out for undiscovered beauty. If traveling means ancient architecture, local foods, scented gardens and multi ethnic culture, Sicily is where you should be! Your senses will come to life like never before. This region has never been concerned by other people's opinions. They have and will stand on their own, immersed in their romantic and dramatic culture, different than any other part of Italy. They are first Sicilian, then Italian. We are never fully present, but here in Sicily, we were present like never before- its hard to escape its magical spell. Immersed, as time neither waits nor comes back, every moment of light and dark is a miracle. You cannot tame Sicily's landscapes, the air is scented with Arabian Jasmine and filled with ancient olive and magnolia trees. Its soulful architecture makes your heart skip a beat- the perfect imperfect. This is a journey that will touch your soul and bless your eyes with the most beautiful street scenes, local food markets, and ancient art… a gateway to heaven. Traveling back a few centuries has never been better captured than at our villa, with its authentic yet unadorned beauty elevating you to the highest of highs. Old and new living happily ever after- the perfect modernized ancient. Listening to some of the most enchanted stories, taking cooking lessons from the Princess (who lives at the Villa) herself, and getting lost in the breathtaking gardens… having the opportunity to stay at this villa is a once in a lifetime experience you must take!

Sicily makes you fall in love all over again with life and all that it has to offer you!
